SPAR ANNOUNCES SUMMER CAMP PROGRAMS NEAR FULL CAPACITY

SHREVEPORT, LA, March 31, 2010: Shreveport Public Assembly & Recreation Division (SPAR) announces that its 2010 Youth Summer Camp is near full capacity. All available spaces have been filled, except for a few teen slots at Querbes Community Center, and a few openings at both Mamie Hicks Community Center and Hollywood Heights Community Center. Registration for city residents began on March 15, 2010 on a first come, first served basis. Due to the popularity of the program, spaces filled rapidly and it appears full capacity will be reached before registration was to begin for non-residents on April 12, 2010.

Robin Jenkins, SPAR's Youth Coordinator, emphasized that SPAR is legally required to limit registrations to the number of children that adult staff members can safely supervise. He recommends that those who missed out on registering their kids should check back periodically to see if space becomes available at their preferred center.
